EPISTLE (OF) JAMES.

I. James, (the) servant of God and our Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes who are in the dispersion, hail. [2] Be in all joy, my brethren, if ye should fall into various temptations; [3] knowing that the proof of your faith worked [a] patience. [4] But [the] patience—let a complete work be in it (sc. patience), that ye may be complete and sound, and that ye may not be deficient of anything. [5] But if there is one among you deficient of wisdom, let him ask from God, who giveth to all simply, reproaching not; and it shall be given to him. [6] But let him ask in [a] faith, doubting not. For he who doubteth was as the waves of the sea, the wind taking them and bringing them. [7] For let not that man think to himself, that he will take anything from the Lord; [8] but the man who doubteth is unsteady on all his ways. [9] But let the brother who is in humble (position) boast himself in his exaltation: [10] but the rich in his humiliation: because as a flower of [a] grass he will pass (away). [11] For (the) sun arose with the scorching heat and dried the grass; and its flower fell off, but (the) beauty of its face perished: thus also the rich in all his ways will wither. [12] Blessed is the man who will endure in a temptation, because, should he be a chosen (one), he will receive the crown of (the) life, which he promised to them who will love him.

[13] Let not any one say, being tempted, that it is God who tempteth me: for God tempteth not in evil things, but he (pron.) tempteth not any one: [14] but each one is being (ϵ) tempted by his own lust drawing him and enticing him. [15] Then the lust should it conceive bringeth forth (the) sin: but (the) sin should it be completed begetteth (the) death. [16] Go not astray, my brethren, my beloved. [17] All good gifts and all complete gifts are from above, coming below from the Father of the lights, with whom there is not change, nor a form of a shadow which passed. [18] He wished, he begat us in (the) word of the truth, to cause us to be a firstfruit of his creatures. [19] But we know, my brethren, my beloved. But let every man be in haste about to hear, slow about to speak, slow about to be angry.

[20] For (the) anger of (the) man worketh not the righteousness of God. [21] Therefore lay down all filthiness and (the) abundance of [the] malice, in [a] meekness receive the word, newly grown up, for which it is possible to save your souls.

[22] Be doers of the word, and not listeners only, otherwise ye are deceiving your own selves. [23] He who is a listener of the word, and not a worker, [this] was like to a man who beheld (the) face of his birth in a mirror: [24] for he beheld it, and he went away, and immediately he forgat the manner (of man) which he was being. III. Be not many teachers, my brethren, knowing that ye will receive a judgement. [2] For we all stumble many times. He who stumbleth not in a word, this is a perfect man, it being possible for him to bridle the whole body. [3] If we put (lit. give) bridle to the mouths of the horses, (it is) for them to obey us, and we drive their whole body. [4] Behold the ships which are so great, driven by rough winds, are guided (lit. brought) by a little helm, whither the steersman will wish to direct (lit. give) his course. [5] Thus also the tongue is a little member, and it speaketh great things[a]. Behold, a little fire burneth a whole wood. [6] The tongue also is a fire, (the) ornament[b] of (the) iniquity. show to us his works from his good walk (of life) in [a] meekness of [a] wisdom. 14 But if there is bitter jealousy among you and strife in your hearts, boast not yourselves and speak (not) falsehood against the truth. 15 This wisdom was not coming down from above, but (ⲁ) is that of (the) earth, psychic, demon-form. 16 For where there is jealousy or strife, (the) confusion is there and every evil work. 17 But the wisdom which is from above, first indeed it is pure, then it is peacemaking, it is fair, full of mercy, and good fruit, it is not self-judging, it is not hypocritical.

18 But (the) fruit of [the] peace and [the] righteousness is sown in [a] peace to them who make [the] peace.

IV. Whence is coming war, and whence is coming dispute among you? Is it not from these, from your pleasures which are armed in your members? 2 Ye lust, and ye have not: ye kill, and ye are jealous, it is not possible for you

OF PETER (THE) EPISTLE 1.

I. Peter, (the) apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect who are in (the) foreign (land) among the dispersion of Pontos, (the) Galatia, (the) Kappodokia, [the] Asia and [the] Bēthania, [2] according to a foreknowledge of God the Father, in the sanctification of the spirit, unto a redemption and a sprinkling of (the) blood of Jesus Christ our Lord: (The) grace and the peace shall be multiplied to you. [3] Blessed is God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to (the) abundance of his mercy begat us into a hope of life through (the) rising of Jesus Christ from them who are dead, [4] into an inheritance incorruptible and unpolluted and unfading: Kept for you in the heavens, [5] namely they who is the word which was proclaimed among you. II. Having laid down all malice, and all subtlety, and all hypocrisy, and all envy, and all slander, [2] as young children lately (†ⲛⲟⲩ) born, yearn after the milk reasonable and without subtlety, that ye may grow in it into [the] salvation.

[3] If ye tasted that the Lord is kind: [4] to whom ye come, the living stone, rejected indeed by [the] men, but he is chosen with (ϩⲓⲧⲉⲛ) God, and he is precious: [5] and ye also are as living stones, building yourselves a spiritual house, for a holy priesthood, for (the) offering spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. [6] Because it is written in the Scripture: 'Lo, I shall (lit. will) lay in Siōn a chosen stone, as head of corner: and he who believeth him shall not be ashamed.' [7] The preciousness[a] then was to you, namely they who believe. But (to) the unbelievers indeed (pron.) the stone which they who build rejected, this became a head of corner, [8] and a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence— this thing, that ye might inherit the blessing. 10 For he who wisheth to love [a] life, and to see good days, let him refrain his tongue from the evil, and his lips, not to speak [a] subtlety. 11 Let him turn aside from the evil: let him do the good; let him seek for [a] peace, and pursue it. 12 Because (the) eyes of the Lord look upon (ⲉⲭⲉⲛ) the righteous, and his ears incline to their prayer; but (the) face of the Lord (is) against (ⲉⲭⲉⲛ) them who do the evil.

13 And who will be able to give pain to you, if ye should be zealous of the good? 14 But (ⲇ) if ye even suffer for [the] righteousness, blessed are ye. But their fear, fear it not, nor be troubled. 15 But the Lord Christ sanctify him in your hearts.

Being prepared always for [a] defence to all who will ask you a word concerning the hope which is in you, 16 but (ⲇ) in [a] meekness and [a] fear: having a good conscience; that they may be ashamed who speak against you as evil doers, and who calumniate your good walk in Christ. 17 For it is good that ye should do the good, If the will of God wisheth, and ye should suffer, than doing the evil. [18] Because Christ also died once because of (the) sin for us, [but] the righteous for the wicked, that he might bring us in to God. Having died indeed in (the) flesh, but he liveth in the spirit; [19] in this he went, he preached good tidings to the spirits also who were in the prison; [20] they who were disobedient once, when the longsuffering of God was indulgent[a] in the days of Nōe, who made an ark, through which (a) few were saved from the water, that is to say, eight souls. [21] Thus ye also now, he will save you in a type of[b] a baptism, not a laying down of a filthiness of (the) flesh, but (ⲁ) in a good conscience for (the) praying to God, through (the) resurrection of Jesus Christ; [22] who is (ⲭⲏ) on the right hand of God, having gone to (the) heaven: angels and authorities and powers were subjected to him.

IV. Christ then having suffered in (the) flesh for us, [and] ye also arm yourselves in this form; because he who suffered in (the) flesh recovered himself from (the) sin; [2] so as not to remain any more in lusts of man, but (ⲁ) to spend (the) rest of his life in (the) flesh in (the) wish of God. [3] For the time which was passed was sufficient for you doing (the) wish of the Gentiles, walking in pollutions and lusts, and drunkennesses of many kinds, and revellings and defilements and many profane idolatries: [4] that is to say, they who think it strange[a] that ye run not with them into the same effusion of [the] dissoluteness, blaspheming: [5] they who will give account to him who is prepared to judge them who are alive and them who are dead. [6] For therefore were good tidings preached also to the dead, that they indeed might be judged according to [the] men in (the) flesh, but might live according to God in the spirit. [7] But (the) end of all things drew near: be[b] understanding then, and watch in the prayers: [8] but first of all things let [the] love be continuous in you one to another, because [the] love covereth over many sins. 9 Be hospitable one towards another, without murmuring: 10 each one (of you) according to the grace which he received, ministering in it among yourselves, as good stewards of the grace of God of many kinds.

11 He who will speak, as words of God: he who will minister, as from a power which God will prepare: that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, whose is the glory unto age of all the ages. Amēn.

12 My beloved, think it not strange[a] in the burning which will happen among you for a trial to you, as a strange thing which befell[b] you. 13 But (ⲁ) as being fellow-sufferers of Christ rejoice, that in the revelation also of his glory ye may rejoice in [a] gladness. 14 But if ye are reproached in (the) name of the Lord, blessed are ye, because (the spirit ⲫⲁ) of the glory and the power and the spirit of God rested itself

12 Therefore I shall (lit. will) remind you always concerning these things, although ye know, and ye are confirmed in the truth which is. 13 For I think that it is a righteous work, this which I think, that as long as I am in this dwelling-place I shall stir in[a] you a remembrance; 14 knowing that this dwelling-place will be dissolved quickly, according as also our Lord Jesus Christ showed to us. 15 But I shall (lit. will) hasten myself always, that ye may remember these things after my departure. 16 It was not crafty fables which we walked after, (when) we showed to you (the) power and (the) coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but (ⲁ) we were eye-witnesses of the greatness of that (one): 17 he received [an] honour and [a] glory from the Father; and a voice came to him of this kind by the exceeding[b] great glory: 'This is my Son, my beloved, this for whom I was well pleased.'

come walking according to their lusts, [4] and saying: 'Where was the promise of his coming? For since our fathers slept all these things remain thus since (the) beginning of the creation.' [5] For they are ignorant of the thing. This (ignorance) is that which they also wish, (ignorance) that the heavens exist from (the) beginning, and (the) earth from [a] water and through [a] water stood by (ϩⲉⲛ the) word of God; [6] these (sc. waters) because of which the world of that time was submerged in [a] water and it perished; [7] but the present heavens and the earth in the same word are treasured up[a] for (ϩⲉⲛ the) fire, being kept unto (the) day of the judgement, and (the) perdition of the ungodly men. [8] But of this be not forgetful, my beloved, that one day with the Lord (is) as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. longsuffering to you, not wishing that any should perish, but (ℵ) wishing that all should come to [a] repentance.

10 But (the) day of the Lord shall come as a thief: this (day) through which the heavens will pass away violently[a]: the elements will be burned, they will be dissolved; and (the) earth and the works which are in it shall be burned. 11 All these things, then, being about to be dissolved, in what manner was it being meet that ye should walk in holy walks (of life) and godlinesses. 12 Gazing out in [an] haste forward to the day of the coming of the Lord, that (ΦℵI) through which the heavens will be burned and come to an end[b], and the elements will be burned and be dissolved. 13 New heavens and a new earth according to his promises we look out for; these in which the righteousness dwelleth.

14 Therefore, my beloved, (since) we are gazing out forward to these, hasten yourselves to be found without spot with him, and without stain before him in [a] peace. 15 And the longsuffering of the Lord reckon it to you for [a] salvation, according as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom which was given to him, wrote to you: 16 as also in all his epistles, speaking in them concerning these (things); these in which some (things) are difficult to know (what they mean); these which the foolish and they who are not firm, distort as (the) rest of the Scriptures; who will draw themselves to (ϰⲁⲧⲁ) their own perditions. 17 Ye, then, my brethren, foreknowing, keep yourselves, lest by any means ye go astray in (the) error of the foolish, and fall from your own firmness. 18 But grow in [the] grace and (the) knowledge of our Lord and our saviour Jesus Christ, whose is the glory from now and unto age of the ages. Amen.

promise which we heard from him; we proclaim it to you, that God is [a] light, and there is not any darkness in him.

6 If we should say that we have a fellowship with him, and are walking in the darkness, we are saying false, and we do not (the) truth: 7 if we should walk in the light, as he also walketh in the light, we have a fellowship with one another, and (the) blood of Jesus his Son will cleanse us from all sin.

8 If we should say that we have not sin, we deceive ourselves, and (the) truth is not in us. 9 If we should confess our sins, he is faithful and is righteous that he should forgive us our sins, and he will cleanse us from all wrongdoing. 10 If we should say that we sinned not, we make him false, and his word is not in us. II. My children, these things I write to you, that ye may not sin. And if one should sin, we have the paraclete with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: 2 and he is (the) redemption of our sins; but not concerning ours only, but (ⲁ) also concerning those of the whole world.

'I love God,' and is hating his brother, he is false: for he who loveth not his brother whom he seeth, God whom he saw not, how will he be able to love him? [21] And this commandment we have from him, that he who loveth God should love his brother also. V. Every one who believeth that Jesus (is) Christ is born[a] from God: and every one who loveth him who begat[b] loveth also him who was begotten[b] from him. [2] In this we shall (lit. will) know that we love the children of God: If we should love God, and do his commandments. [3] For this is [the] love of God, that we should keep his commandments; and his commandments are not burdensome. [4] Because every one who was born from God conquereth the world: and this is the conquest which conquered the world, even[c] our faith.

[5] But who is he who is conquering the world, except him who believeth that Jesus is (the) Son of God? [6] This is he who came through [a] water and [a] blood and [a] spirit,

(OF) JUDE (THE) EPISTLE.

Jude, (the) servant of Jesus Christ, but (the) brother of James, to them who were loved in God the Father, and they were kept for (ⲛ̄) Jesus Christ, they who are called. [2] May (the) mercy and (the) peace and the love be multiplied to you. [3] My beloved, all diligence (it is) which I give (lit. do them) writing to you concerning your salvation together. It was necessary for me to write to you to encourage (you), that ye should strive in the faith which was once delivered to you, namely the saints. [4] For men slipped themselves in among us, concerning whom it was before written unto this judgement, being ungodly, changing the grace of our Lord into [a] defilement, and denying (the) only Master, our Lord Jesus Christ. [5] I wish you to know

(ⲉⲙⲙⲓ), though ye know (ⲥⲱⲟⲩⲛ) all things, that once Jesus saved his people from (the) land of Khēmi[a]; but (the) second time, them who believed not he destroyed. [6] Angels also (who) kept not their beginning, but (ⲁ) they left their place of dwelling, he kept them in under (the) darkness in eternal[b] bonds unto the judgement of the great day. [7] As Sodoma and Gomorra, and the other cities which were around them, having fornicated as these, and they went after[c] other flesh (plur.), they are set for an example of the eternal fire, about to receive a judgement. [8] Thus also these others defile their flesh in (the) dreaming of dreams[d], but reject [the] dominion; the glories they blaspheme. [9] But Michaēl the archangel, speaking (lit. saying) against the devil—he was speaking concerning (the) body of Moses—dared not to bring a blasphemous judgement upon him, but (ⲁ) he said: 'The Lord shall rebuke thee.' ungodliness in which they were ungodly, and concerning all the hard things which they spake against him, being ungodly sinners.' [16] These are the quarrelsome murmurers, walking according to their lusts, and their mouths speak in excess, admiring (men's) persons because of gain. [17] But ye, my beloved, remember the words which were spoken from (the) first by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; [18] that they were saying to you, that at (the) end of the times deceivers shall come, walking according to the lusts of their ungodlinesses. [19] These are they who separate, psychic, in whom there is not spirit. [20] But ye, my beloved, build yourselves in your holy faith, praying in the holy spirit. [21] Let us keep ourselves in [a] love of God, looking out forward to the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto an eternal life. [22] Some indeed reproving, distinction being made the Scripture should be fulfilled, which the holy spirit said before from the mouth of David concerning Ioudas who guided them who overpowered Jesus. [17] Because he was being numbered amongst us, and the lot came to him [a] of the heritage of this ministry. [18] This (man) indeed then bought a field from (the) reward of (the) iniquity; and he fell upon his face, he burst in the (lit. his) midst, and all that (plur.) which was inside him was poured out. [19] And he was manifest to all who dwelt in Jerusalem; so that they call (the) name of that field in their language 'Acheldamag,' which (is) the field of the blood. [20] For it is written in (the) book of the Psalms: 'Let his habitation be desolate, and let there not be him who dwelleth in it. His bishopric let another take.' [21] It is necessary then, among the men who came in among us, in all the time which our Lord Jesus came in and came out over us, [22] having begun from the baptism of Iōannēs until the day (in) which he was taken away up us, as though in our power or our piety we did this to cause this (man) to walk? 13 God of Abraam and God of Isaak and God of Iakōb, God of our fathers glorified his servant (lit. child) Jesus; He (ϕ∧ι) whom ye (pron.) gave (up); ye denied him before Pilatos: he indeed having decided[a] to release him; 14 but ye (pron.) denied the holy, the righteous.

Ye ask to be released to you a man (a) murderer; 15 but (the) author of (the) life ye kill, this whom God raised from them who are dead; this to whom we (pron.) witness. 16 And in (the) faith of his name, this (man) whom ye see and ye know,—his name (is) that which cured him, and the faith, (which) is through him, gave to him the soundness before you all. 17 But now, my brethren, I know that ye did it in [an] ignorance, as also your rulers. 18 But God fulfilled thus the things which he said since (the) first from the mouth of all his prophets for his Christ to suffer.

19 Repent then and return for your sins to be wiped away, in what name do ye (pron.) this?' [8] Then Petros was filled with the holy spirit, he said to them: [The] rulers of the people, and [the] presbyters, [9] if we (pron.) to-day are examined concerning a good deed which was done to a feeble man, as to (ⲭⲉ) by (ϩⲉⲛ) whom this man was cured; [10] let the deed be manifest to you all, and all the people of Israel, that in (the) name of Jesus the Nazōreos, this whom ye (pron.) crucified, this whom God raised from them who are dead, in this (one) standeth this (man) before you cured.

[11] This is the stone which was despised by you the builders, this became a chief corner (stone). [12] And there is not another in whom is being (the) salvation, nor is there another name below (the) heaven which was given to [the] men in which they must be saved. [13] But having seen the boldness of Petros and Iōannēs, and having known that they were men who[a] knew not writing, and were unlearned, they were wondering; but they were knowing them, that they were being with Jesus. her away, they laid her by her husband. [11] A great fear came (ⲭⲱⲡⲓ) upon all the church, and on all who heard these (things).

[12] But through (the) hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were being done among the people; and they all were assembling together at the porch of Solomōn.

[13] But among the rest no one dared join himself to them, but (ⲁ) the people were exalting them; [14] but the more were adding themselves to the Lord, believers[a], many men and women. [15] So that they brought out them who were sick into (ϩⲓ) the streets, and laid them upon beds and resting-places, that as Petros is to pass by, at the least his shadow may come upon one of them. [16] But the multitudes of the cities which were around Jerusalem were coming, bringing them who were sick, and them who were vexed with the unclean spirits: but all these are cured through them. [17] But the chief priest rose, and all they who were with him, which (is) (the) sect of the Sadducees; they were showed to them: 'Behold, the men whom ye put in the prison stand in the temple, teaching the people.' [26] Then the captain went with the officers, they brought them, not by force; for they were fearing the people lest by any means they should stone them. [27] But having brought them, they set them in the council. The chief priest asked them, [28] saying: 'In an order we ordered you not to teach in this name: lo, ye filled all Jerusalem with your teaching; and ye think to bring (the) blood of this man upon us.' [29] Petros answered and the apostles, they said: 'We ought to hearken to God rather than [the] men. [30] God of our fathers raised Jesus. This (one) upon whom ye (pron.) put forth[a] your hands, having hanged him on a tree[b]: [31] this (one) God exalted as prince[c], as saviour with[d] his right hand, to give [a] repentance to Israel, and (the) forgiveness of sins. 33 But having heard these (things) they gnashed their teeth at them, and they were wishing to kill them. 34 One rose (up) in the council, he was a Pharisee whose name was Gamaliēl, he was a teacher of the law honoured by all the people. He commanded to put (lit. throw) the men forth for a little. 35 He said to them: '[The] men, [the] Israelites, give heed to yourselves concerning these men, as to (ⲭⲉ) what it is which ye do. 36 For before these days rose one called (ⲭⲉ) Theutēs, saying that I am (he). Four hundred of men in number followed him, and he having been killed, all who were obeying him were overthrown, having become nothing.

'37 After this rose Ioudas the Galilean in the days of the enrolment, and he drew many after (lit. behind) him, and he also perished; all who were obeying him were overthrown.

[9] But (there) rose (up) some from the synagogue, whom they call the Libertines and the Cyrenians and the men of Rakoti[a] and the men of (the) Kylikia and [the] Asia, questioning (lit. seeking) with Stephanos. [10] And they could not oppose the wisdom and the spirit in which he was speaking. [11] Then came men, saying: 'We (pron.) heard him saying words of blasphemy at (ϵ) Mōysēs and God.' [12] But they moved the people and the presbyters and the scribes; they rose, they carried him off, they brought him into the council, [13] they set up false witnesses, saying: 'This man ceaseth not, saying words against this holy place and the law: [14] for we heard him saying, that Jesus the Nazōreos himself will overthrow this holy place, he will change the customs which Mōysēs delivered to us.' [15] They who sat in the council, having all gazed upon him, saw his face as (the) face of an angel. VII. But the chief priest said to him: 'Are these (things)

[17] But according as (the) time of the promise concerning which God sware to Abraam approached, the people grew and was strengthened, it multiplied in Chēmi. [18] Until rose another king over Chēmi, knowing not Joseph. [19] This (one) dealt craftily[a] with (ⲉϫⲟⲩⲛ ⲉ) our race, he afflicted our fathers, to make them cast out their little children (so as) not to keep them alive. [20] But in that time Mōysēs was born; he was exceeding fair[b]; this (one) was nourished three months in (the) house of his father. [21] But having been cast out, (the) daughter of Pharaō took him away. [22] And Mōysēs was taught all wisdom of the men of Chēmi; he was being strong in his words and his works. foot of a young man, his name being Saulos. 59 And they stoned Stephanos, beseeching, saying: 'Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.' 60 He threw himself upon his knees, he cried out in a great voice: 'Lord, thou shalt not reckon this sin to them.' But having said this, he slept. VIII. But Saulos was consenting to his being killed. But at that time happened a great persecution against the church which was in Jerusalem. But all were scattered to the countries of [the] Ioudea and (the) Samaria save the apostles only. 2 But devout men took away Stephanos, and they made a great wailing over him. 3 But Saulos was fighting[a] against the church, going into the houses, dragging off men and women, casting them to (the) prison. 4 They indeed then who were scattered were passing (along) preaching good tidings of the word. 5 But Philippos having come into a city of (the) Samaria proclaimed the word of God. 6 The multitudes together were giving heed to the things having believed and having been baptised was continuing with Philippos, seeing the signs and the great powers being done through him, he was wondering.

14 But the apostles who were in Jerusalem having heard that [the] Samaria also received the word of God, sent Petros and Iōannnēs unto them: 15 these having come thither were praying for them that they might receive the holy spirit: 16 for he had not yet come upon any (ⲟⲩⲟⲛ) of them: but rather they were being baptised unto (the) name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then they laid hand upon them, and they were receiving the holy spirit. 18 But Simōn having seen that through the laying hand of the apostles they receive the holy spirit, brought to them money, 19 saying: 'Give this authority to me also, that he, upon whom I shall (lit. will) lay hand, may receive the holy spirit.' 20 But Petros said to him: 'Thy silver with thee shall be unto (the) destruction, because thou thoughtest to get for thee through money the free gift of God. 21 Part shall not be to thee nor lot in this word: for thy heart

38 And he commanded to stop the chariot: and they came down to the water, both Philippos and the eunuch; and he baptised him. 39 But having come up from the water a spirit of the Lord carried off Philippos; and the eunuch saw him no more; for he was journeying[a] on his road rejoicing. 40 But Philippos was found in Azōtos: he was going about, preaching good tidings in all the cities, until he came to Kesaria.

IX. But Saulos, still full of anger and murder of the disciples of the Lord, came unto the chief priest; 2 he asked for letters from him to Damaskos unto the synagogues; that those, whom he will find, being of the way[b], the men and the women, he might bind and bring into Jerusalem.

3 But having journeyed[c], it came to pass (that), having approached Damaskos, suddenly shone upon him a light from (the) heaven, 4 and, having fallen upon the earth, he heard a voice saying to him: 'Saoul, Saoul, why persecutest thou me?' 5 But he said: 'Who (art) thou, Lord?' But he (pron.) said: 'I am Jesus whom thou (pron.) persecutest:

he saw, and he rose; he was baptised. 19 Having received [a] food, he was strengthened[a]. But he was some (ϩⲁⲛ) days with the disciples who were in Damaskos. 20 And immediately he proclaimed Jesus in the synagogues, that this is (the) Son of God. 21 But all were being amazed who heard, saying: 'Is not this he who was troubling them who prayed to this name in Jerusalem? And he came to this place for this thing, that he might bind them and take them up unto the chief priests.'

22 But Saulos rather was increasing in strength[b], and he was troubling the Jews who were in Damaskos, showing to them, that this is Christ. 23 But many days having been completed, the Jews took counsel that they might kill him. 24 But to Saulos was shown their counsel; but they were keeping the gates by the day and the night, that they might kill him. 25 But the disciples took him away by night, they let him down in a basket from upon the wall. 26 But having come into Jerusalem, he was trying to join himself to the disciples: and they all were fearing him, and they trust him not that he is a disciple. [27] But Barnabas caught hold of him, he brought him unto the apostles, he spake to them in what manner he saw the Lord on the road; and that he spake to him; and in what manner he spake boldly[a] in Damaskos in (the) name of Jesus. [28] And he was being in Jerusalem, going in and out with them, speaking boldly in (the) name of the Lord Jesus: [29] but he was speaking, he was questioning the Greeks; but they (pron.) were wishing to lay (lit. bring) their hands upon him to kill him. [30] But the brethren having known (it), brought him to Kesaria, they sent him into Tharsos. [31] The church indeed then of all [the] Ioudea and [the] Galilea and (the) Samaria had [a] peace, being edified and continuing in the fear of the Lord, and they were going on (lit. coming) growing in the consolation of the holy spirit.

Ioppē: the disciples then, having heard that Petros is there, sent two men to him, saying, (and) praying him: 'Delay not to come to us.' [39] But Petros arose, he walked with them.

But he having come, they took him away into the upper place; all the widows stood by him weeping, showing to him the coats and the garments (which) the Gazelle (was) making, being with them. [40] Petros put (lit. threw) them all out; having thrown himself upon his knees, he prayed; having turned himself to the body, he said: 'Tabitha, rise.' But she (pron.) opened her eyes; but having seen Petros, she sat (up). [41] But he helped her[a], he made her stand. But having called the saints and the widows, he presented her to them alive. [42] But this work was manifested in all Ioppē: and many believed the Lord. [43] But he abode many days in Ioppē with one 'Simōn' the tanner.

truth I see that God is not a respecter of persons: [35] but (ⲁ) in every nation (he) who feareth him, and who worketh the righteousness is accepted with him. [36] He sent his word to (the) sons of Israel preaching good tidings of [a] peace through Jesus Christ, he (ⲫⲁⲓ) is the Lord of all. [37] Ye (pron.) know the word which came (ⲯⲱⲡⲓ) in all [the] Ioudea, having begun from [the] Galilea, after the baptism which Iōannēs proclaimed. [38] Jesus the Nazarene, according as God anointed him in a holy spirit and [a] power: he (ⲫⲁⲓ) who came to do the good, and healing every one over whom the devil had power, because God was being with him.

[39] And we (pron.) are witness of all things which he did in (the) country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. He whom they killed, and they hanged him on a tree[a]. [40] This (one) God raised in the third day, and he gave him to manifest himself, [41] not to all the people, but (ⲁ) to the witnesses whom God chose before, that is us, namely we (ⲛⲏ) who ate and we drank with him after he rose from them who are dead. [42] And he ordered us to proclaim to the people, and to

[6] This having gazed at, I was giving heed; and I saw the beasts of (the) earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping things, and the birds of (the) heaven. [7] But I heard a voice also, saying: 'Rise, Peter, slay and eat.' [8] But I said: 'Not so, Lord, because never did anything unclean or defiled go into my mouth.' [9] But the voice answered (the) second time from (the) heaven, saying: 'The things which God cleansed do not thou (pron.) make them unclean.' [10] But this was done even (ϣⲁ) three times: and everything multitude followed the Lord. 25 But having come to Tharsos, seeking for Saulos; 26 and having found him, he brought him into (the) Antiochia. But it came to pass (that) having spent a whole year, assembling in the church, they taught a great multitude: but the disciples who were in (the) Antiochia were named first 'the Christians.' 27 But in those days came prophets from Jerusalem to (the) Antiochia. 28 But one from them rose, his name being Agabos, he signified through the holy spirit a great famine about to happen over the whole world, which is that which happened at (the time of) Klaudios. 29 But the disciples, according as each one had means [a], each of them decided [b] for [a] ministry to send to the brethren who dwelt in [the] Ioudea; 30 this having done, to send (it) to presbyters [c] through Barnabas and Saulos.

XII. But in that time Ērōdēs (the) king brought his hand upon some from the church to give pain to them. [2] And he killed Iakōbos (the) brother of Iōannēs with (the) sword. [3] But having seen the thing was pleasing to the Jews, he went on (lit. added) to arrest Petros also. But the days were (those) of the unleavened (plur.). [4] Him (ⲫⲁⲓ) having arrested, he put in the prison, having delivered him to four bands of soldiers to keep him, thinking to bring him up to the people after the Pascha. [5] Petros indeed then was being kept in the prison: but the church was praying for him greatly to God. [6] But when Ērōdēs was about to bring him up, in that night Petros was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: but there were keepers at the doors keeping the prison. [7] And behold, an angel of the Lord came, and a light shone in the house: but having shaken (the) side of Petros, he raised him (up), saying: 'Rise quickly.' And the chains fell from his hands. [8] But the angel said to him: 'Gird thyself, and put (lit. give) thy sandal to thy foot.' But he did thus. And he said:

she opened not the gate, but having run in, she showed to them that Petros stood at the porch. 15 But they (pron.) said to her: 'Thou art mad.' But she (pron.) was affirming that thus it was. But they (pron.) said: 'It is his angel.'

16 But Petros was continuing knocking: but having opened, and having seen him, they were amazed. 17 But he beckoned to them with his hand: 'Hold your peace.' And he spake before them in what manner the Lord brought him from the prison. But he said to them: 'Show to Iakōbos and the brethren these things.' And having come forth, he went to another place. 18 But the day having come (ⲫⲱⲛⲓ), there was no small trouble among the soldiers as to (ϫⲉ) what then (is) that which happened to Petros. 19 Ērōdēs having sought for him, and having found him not, he tortured[a] the keepers, he commanded to kill them. And having come from [the] Ioudea into Kesaria, he abode there. 20 But he was being in [a] wrath, opposing them of Tyros and Tsidōn: but they came together unto him. of (the) king, they were asking [a] peace, because that their country was being nourished from his kingdom. 21 But on a day ordained Ērōdēs clothed himself with a kingly raiment, and having sat on the judgement seat was speaking to them. 22 But the multitude was crying out, saying: 'This is a voice of god, and it is not that of man.' 23 But immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because that he glorified not God: and having been eaten of worms, he died. 24 But the word of God grew and was going on (lit. coming) multiplying.

25 But Barnabas and Saulos returned from Jerusalem, having completed the ministry, having brought Iōannēs also who was named 'Markos.' XIII. But there were prophets and teachers in the church of (the) Antiochia, Barnabas, and Simōn who is called 'Niker,' and Loukios the Kyrinnean,

XIV. But it came to pass in Ikonion according to the same manner that they went into the synagogue of the Jews, and spake thus so that a great multitude believed of the Jews and the Greeks. 2 But the Jews who were disobedient arose, and they gave pain to the souls of the Gentiles concerning the brethren. 3 They indeed then spent a great time there, speaking openly [a] in (the) name of the Lord. He (ⲫⲁⲓ) who witnessed for (the) word of his grace, giving signs and wonders to be done through their hands. 4 But the multitude of the city was divided. Some indeed were being with the Jews, but others were being with the apostles. 5 But the Gentiles having run with (ⲛⲉⲩⲁ) the Jews and (ⲛⲉⲩⲁ) their rulers also to insult them and to stone them, 6 they having seen, fled into the cities of Lykaonia, Lystra, and Terbē, and the region round about. 7 They were preaching good tidings there. 8 And there was a man impotent in his feet in Lystra; he was sitting, being lame since he was (ⲉⲩ) in (the) womb of his mother; he disciples, encouraging them to stay in the faith, and that through much tribulation we must go into the kingdom of God. 23 But they laid hand upon presbyters for them in every (ⲕⲁⲧⲁ) church; and having prayed in fastings, they committed them to the Lord, whom they believed.

24 But having passed (through) [the] Pisidia, they came to [the] Pamphylia. 25 And having spoken the word in Pergē, they came into Attalia; 26 and from there they sailed to (the) Antiochia, the place in which they were given in the grace of God for (ϵ) the work which they completed. 27 But having come, and having assembled the church, they were showing to them concerning all things which God did with them; and that he opened a door of (the) faith to the Gentiles. 28 But they abode there with the disciples not a little time. XV. And some having come from [the] Ioudea, were teaching the brethren, that if ye should not be circumcised according to (the) custom of Mōysēs it is not possible for you to be saved. 2 But no little trouble one another; but Barnabas took Markos, he sailed to Kypros; 40 but Paulos chose Silas, he came forth, having been delivered to the grace of God by the brethren. 41 But he was passing through (the) Syria and (the) Kylikia confirming the churches. XVI. But he came into (the) Terbē also and Lystra: and lo, a disciple was being there, his name being Timotheos, (the) son of a believing Jewess; but his father was a Greek. 2 Concerning this (man) were witnessing the brethren who were in Lystra and Ikonion. 3 Him (ⲫⲁⲓ) Paul wished to come forth with him; and having taken him away, he circumcised him, because of the Jews who were in that place: for they all were knowing that his father was a Greek. 4 But going round among the cities they were delivering to them to keep the decrees which were established by the apostles and the presbyters who were in Jerusalem. 5 The churches indeed then were going on (lit. coming) being confirmed in the faith, and they were going on (lit. coming) multiplying in their number daily. 6 But they passed

But Paulos, having been grieved, and having turned to the spirit, said: 'I order thee in (the) name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.' And he came out in that hour. [19] But her masters, having seen that the hope of their profit came out of her, laid hold on Paulos and Silas; they dragged them away to the marketplace unto the rulers. [20] And having brought them to the captains, they said: 'These men trouble our city being Jews: [21] and they proclaim to us other customs, these which it is not lawful for us to receive nor to do, being Romans.' [22] And the multitude rose upon them; and the captains rent their garments, they commanded that they should beat them with (the) staff. [23] Having given to them many stripes, they cast them to the prison, having ordered the jailor[a] to keep them securely. [24] This (man) having received an order of this kind, cast them into the inner prison, and he secured their feet to the wood. [25] But at midnight Paulos and Silas, praying, were blessing God: they all his house. 34 But having brought them into his house, he put a table before them, and was being glad and all his house, having believed God. 35 But the day having come (ϣωπι), the captains sent lictors, saying: 'Release those men.' 36 But the jailor showed to Paulos these words: 'The captains sent that ye should be released: now then come forth, go in [a] peace.' 37 But Paulos said to them: 'Having beaten us publicly, being Roman men, (when) also we are not condemned, they cast us to (the) prison; and they cast us (pron.) out secretly. Nay, but (ⲇ) let them come themselves and bring us out.' 38 The lictors showed to the captains these words: but they feared, having heard that they were Romans. 39 And having come, they entreated them, and having brought them out, they besought them to go out of their city. 40 But having come out of the prison, they went into (the) house of Lydia, and having seen, they comforted the brethren, and they came forth.

XVII. Having passed through [the] Amphipolis and [the] Apollōnia, they came to Thessalonikē, the place in which there was a synagogue of the Jews: [2] but according to the custom of Paulos, he went in unto them, and he was speaking to them from the Scriptures for (ⲙⲁ) three sabbaths, [3] manifesting and putting (it) before them, that Christ must suffer and rise from them who are dead, and that Jesus Christ is this, this whom I (pron.) proclaim to you. [4] And some indeed (ⲁϵ) from them believed, and there were numbered with (ϵ) Paulos and Silas a great multitude of them who worship of the Greeks, women also (ⲁϵ) of the first (rank) not few. [5] But the Jews were jealous, and they took men, evil, of the baser sort, and having assembled a multitude they troubled the city, and they came at (the) house of Iassōn seeking for them that they might bring them out to the multitude. [6] But having not found them, they dragged Iassōn out and other brethren unto the rulers of the city, the sea: but Silas and Timotheos were left there. [15] But they who escorted Paulos brought him into Athēnnas.

And having received commandment to give message to the brethren Silas and Timotheos, that they might come to him quickly, they came forth, they went (away).

[16] But Paulos was being in Athēnnas looking out for them. But his spirit was angered within him, seeing the city abounding with idolatry. [17] He was speaking indeed then in the synagogue to (ⲛ̄ⲧⲉ) the Jews, and them who worship, and all who assemble daily in the marketplace. [18] But some from the Epicurean and the Stoic philosophers were encountering him; and others were saying: 'What wisheth to say this babbler?' But others were saying that he is a proclaimer of strange demons: because he was proclaiming to them Jesus and his resurrection. [19] But they laid hold of him, they brought him into the Ariopagos, saying: 'It is having shorn his head in Kenchrees: for he was being in a vow. 19 But he came to Ephesos, and he left those there: but he (pron.) having gone into the synagogue was speaking to the Jews. 20 But they praying him that he should spend a great time with them, he wished not; 21 but (ⲇ) he took leave of them, having said: 'I shall (lit. will) return to you in the will of God.' But he sailed from Ephesos. 22 But having come into Kesaria, and having saluted the church, He came into (the) Antiochia. 23 And having spent [a] time there, he came forth, passing from place (to place) of the country of [the] Galatia and [the] Phrikia, confirming all the disciples.

24 But there was a Jew, his name being Apellēs, being a man of Rakoti[a] in his race, being a notable man, who came to stay at Ephesos; being powerful in the Scriptures.

25 This (man) had been instructed in (ϵ) the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he was speaking and he was teaching in [an] accuracy concerning Jesus, only the baptism of Iōannēs being (that) which he knoweth. 26 But this (man) began to speak boldly[a] in the synagogue. Priskylla and Akylla having heard him, received him, and they showed to him in [an] accuracy the way of God. 27 But he wishing to come forth to [the] Achaia, the brethren incited him, they wrote to the disciples that they should receive him. But this (man) having come, was very profitable to them who believed through the grace. 28 He was confuting the Jews in [an] assurance, manifestly showing to them from the Scriptures that Jesus is Christ.

XIX. But it came to pass, Apellēs being in Korinthos, [but] that Paulos having passed by the places which were above, came[b] to Ephesos, and having found disciples, ing evil of (ⲛ̄ⲥⲁ) the way before the multitude, he fled from them, having separated the disciples, Speaking daily in the school of Tyrannos. [10] But this he was doing two years; so that all who dwelt in [the] Asia heard the word of the Lord, the Jews and the Greeks.

[11] But God was doing mighty works[a] not few through (the) hands of Paulos: [12] so that they took handkerchiefs and aprons from his body and laid them upon those who were sick, and the sicknesses were wont to go from them, and the evil spirits were coming out. [13] But some from the Jews who went about as (ⲛ̄) exorcists took in hand to say (the) name of the Lord Jesus over them who (had) the evil spirits upon them, saying: 'I adjure you by (ⲛ̄) Jesus, whom Paulos proclaimeth.' [14] But there were seven sons of one 'Skeva,' being a Jew, chief priest, doing this.

15 The evil spirit answered, he said to them: 'Jesus I know (ⲥⲱⲟⲩⲛ), and Paulos also I know (ⲉⲣⲣⲓ), but who are ye?' 16 And the man with whom the evil spirit (was) threw himself upon them, he mastered them together, he prevailed over them, so that they fled from that house naked with their heads wounded[a]. 17 But this became manifested to all the Jews and the Greeks, who dwelt in Ephesos; and a fear came upon them all, and (the) name of the Lord Jesus Christ was going on (lit. coming) being exalted. 18 But many (sing.) from them who believed were coming, confessing, and saying their works. 19 But many (plur.) among them who were doing curious arts, having brought their books, burnt them before all: and they took count of their prices, having found them being there fifty[b] thousand of silver. 20 But thus mightily grew (the) word of the Lord and it prevailed.

21 But these (things) having been completed, Paulos purposed[c] in his spirit that, should he pass throughout (the) Makedonia and [the] Achaia, he might go to Jerusalem, having said: 'After my going there, I must see also Rōmē.'

you in all this time; [19] being servant to the Lord in all humbleness of heart, and tears, and the trials which came upon me, in the evil plans of the Jews: [20] how I hid not anything of (ⲥⲉⲛ) the things which were profitable, without showing them to you, and teaching you, [21] witnessing publicly and in every house to the Jews and the Greeks [the] repentance toward (ⲛ̄ⲧⲉ) God, and the faith in (ⲉ) our Lord Jesus Christ. [22] And now, lo, I (pron.) being bound in the spirit shall (lit. will) go to Jerusalem, I know not that which will befall[a] me in it. [23] Except that the holy spirit witnesseth to me in every city, saying: "Bonds and afflictions stay for thee." [24] But (ⲇ) my life I put it not, that it is precious to me, in any account[b], until I complete my course and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to witness to the Gospel of the grace of God. fore, I witness to you in this very[a] day that I (pron.) am pure from the blood of you[b] all. 27 For I hid not myself so as not to show to you (the) whole wish of God. 28 Take heed to yourselves and all the flock, in which the holy spirit put you as overseers, to feed the church of the Lord, which he got through his own blood. 29 But I (pron.) know that after my going (away) grievous wolves will come in to you, they will not spare the flock; 30 and men will rise from among you, saying perverse words, for them to draw the disciples after them. 31 Therefore then watch yourselves, remembering that I spent three years, I ceased not by the day and the night admonishing each one of you in tears. 32 And now I commit you to the Lord and (the) word of his grace, for which it is possible to establish and to give inheritance among all them who were sanctified. 33 [A] silver or [a] gold or a garment I coveted not them of any one. 34 Ye (pron.)

know that these my hands ministered to my need, and (to) them who were with me. 35 I showed to you all things, that it is right to toil thus and help them who are weak, and for you to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he (pron.) said: "It is a blessedness rather to give than to receive."'

36 And having said these (things), he threw himself on his knees with them all; they prayed. 37 But there was a great weeping of all of them; and they threw themselves upon (the) neck of Paulos, and they kissed his mouth, 38 grieving most concerning the word which he said, that they will see his (lit. my) face no more. But they were escorting him toward the ship.

we went on board; we put off. 3 But having seen Kypros, we left it on the left hand, we sailed to (the) Syria, and we came to Tyros: For the ship was being about to unlade[a] its freight there. 4 But having found the disciples, we abode there with them seven days, these who were saying to Paulos through the spirit not to go into Jerusalem. 5 But it came to pass (that) having completed the days, we came forth, we walked (away), all of them escorting us, with women also and their children, unto outside of the city: and we threw ourselves upon our knees upon the shore, we prayed, 6 and we took leave from one another, we went on board the ship, but they returned to their own. 7 But we (pron.) sailed from Tyros, we came into Ptolemais, and having saluted the brethren, we abode with them a day. 8 But on the (lit. his) morrow having come forth, we came to Kesaria, and having gone into (the) house of Philippos the preacher of good tidings, being one from the seven, we abode with him. 9 But this (man) had four daughters, virgins, prophesying.

10 But we having abode there many days, One came from [the] Ioudea, being a prophet, his name being Agabos. 11 And having come unto us, he took away the girdle of Paulos, he bound his hands and his feet, he said: 'These (things) are they which the holy spirit saith: "The man, whose is this girdle, the Jews will thus bind in Jerusalem, and will deliver him to (the) hands of Gentiles."' 12 But we having heard these (things), were beseeching, we and the brethren of that place, for him not to go to Jerusalem. 13 Then answered Paulos: 'What do ye, weeping and paining my heart? For not only to be bound, but (ⲁ) I (pron.) am prepared to die in Jerusalem for (the) name of the Lord Jesus.' 14 But he having not been persuaded, we held our peace, saying: 'Let the will of the Lord be done.'

15 But after these days having prepared ourselves, we were going to Jerusalem. 16 But some from the disciples came with us from Kesaria, having brought him with whom we

29 For they had before seen Trophēmos with him in the city, the Ephesian; this (man) they were thinking that Paulos took away into the temple. 30 But the whole city was moved, and there happened a running together of all the people; and having overpowered Paulos, they drew him out of the temple, and immediately the doors were shut. 31 But as they are seeking to kill him, The news went up to the chiliarchos of the band, that the whole of Jerusalem was troubled. 32 But immediately he took soldiers and centurions, he ran upon them. But they (pron.) having seen the soldiers and the chiliarchos, ceased beating Paulos. 33 Then the chiliarchos having approached, laid hold on him, and he commanded him to be bound with two chains; and he was asking who he is, and what he did. 34 But others were crying out saying another thing. But having not been able to know the certainty because of the tumult, he commanded to take him away into the castle. 35 But when he praying to his name." [17] But it came to pass (that) having returned to Jerusalem, and praying in the temple, I was in a trance; [18] I saw him saying to me: "Come quickly from Jerusalem, because they will not receive witness from thee concerning me." [19] I also said: "Lord, they (pron.) know that I was casting to (the) prison, and I was beating[a] in (every) synagogue them who believed thee: [20] and when they were about to shed (the) blood of Stephanos the martyr I also was standing, consenting, and I was keeping the garments of them who were killing him." [21] And he said to me: "Go (lit. walk): because I (pron.) will send thee to distant Gentiles." ' [22] But they were hearing him unto this word; and they lifted up their voice, saying: 'Take away such an one from (the) earth: for he is not worthy of living.' [23] But (as they are) crying out, and throwing (off) their garments, and throwing dust to the air, [24] the chiliarchos commanded them to take him into the castle, having told (ⲭⲟⲥ) them to give pain to him with scourges, concerning a hope and a resurrection of the dead I (pron.) am judged. 7 But he having said this, there happened a tumult between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided. 8 For the Sadducees indeed say that there is not resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit, but the Pharisees confess them both[a]. 9 But a great noise happened, and some from the Pharisees rose, they disputed, saying: 'We find nothing of evil in this man. If a spirit spake to him or an angel.'

10 But a great tumult having happened, the chiliarchos feared lest by any means Paulos should be carried (off) by them, he commanded the soldiery that they should go up and snatch him from their midst, and bring him into the castle, governor.' 25 But he wrote a letter having a form thus,

26 Klaudios Lysia to the most excellent governor Phylix, hail.
27 This man the Jews seized, and as they are thinking to kill him, I went with the soldiery; I saved him, having known that he is a Roman. 28 But wishing to know the cause concerning which they found fault with him, I brought him to (ⲉⲭⲉⲛ) their council: 29 whom[a] I found found fault with concerning questions of their law, but I found not sin in him worthy of (the) death or bonds for an offence[b]. 30 But having been shown concerning an evil plan which would be made against this man by them, immediately I sent him to thee, having ordered his accusers to speak with thee.
31 The soldiers indeed then, according to that which was ordained them, took away Paulos by night, having brought him to Antipatris. 32 But on the (lit. his) morrow they let the horsemen go with him; they returned to the castle.

Chrēstianos.' [29] But Paulos said: 'I pray to God both (ⲛⲉⲗⲗ) in [a] little and (ⲛⲉⲗⲗ) in [a] great, not only thou, but (ⲁ) also (ⲛⲉⲗⲗ) all who hear me to-day for them to become in my manner, in the manner in which I also am, save my bonds.' [30] But (the) king rose, and the governor and Bernikē and they who sat with them: [31] and having withdrawn, they were speaking to one another, saying: 'This man doeth not any deed worthy of (the) death or bonds.'

[32] But Agrippas said to Phēstos: 'It was possible to release this man, if he had not appealed to (the) king.'

XXVII. But it came to pass (that), it having been decided for us to sail to [the] Hytalia, he delivered Paulos and other prisoners to a centurion, his name being Ioulios, from the band of Sabastē. [2] But we went on board a ship Andramantinean, about to sail to the places of [the] Asia, we put to sea, being with us Aristarchos also of (the) Makedonia, was no longer (the) time of sailing, for the ship had gone out of her course, because that the fast also had passed.

But Paulos was exhorting, [10] saying to them, [The] men, I see that an injury and much loss will happen, not only of the ship and the freight, but (ⲁ) also our lives, in this voyage. [11] But the centurion was trusting to the steersman and the shipowner rather than the things which Paulos was saying. [12] But the harbour not being (well) placed for us to winter in, most of them made a plan to put out from there, that perhaps they could reach Phoinix to winter in, a harbour of [the] Krētē, looking westward, being a place of Chōra. [13] But a south wind blowing, they were thinking that they will be able to establish their purpose[a], they put to sea from Assōs, they left [the] Krētē. [14] But a high wind, which is called 'Eurakylōn,' delayed not, it blew against us. [15] But it having carried off the ship, as (ϵⲧϵ) been glad, they also took their food. [37] But all the souls who were being in the ship were making two hundred (and) seventy-six. [38] But having been satisfied with the food, they were causing the ship to lighten, throwing the wheat to the sea. [39] But when the day came (ϣωπι), they knew not the land; but they were observing a bay, having (lit. being) a shore in it: but they were considering that perhaps they would be able to save the ship thither. [40] And having lifted the anchors, they were letting them (go) in the sea, but at the same time they loosed the heads of the rudders; and having hoisted the foresail to the wind which blew, they put in to the shore. [41] But having fallen on (ϵ) a place, being of two seas, they ran the ship aground thither; and the fore(part) of it indeed was fixed, it stayed, not moving, but the hinder (part) of it was destroyed by (the) violence of the waves. [42] But the soldiers made a plan, that they should kill the prisoners, lest by any means one should swim

And thus it happened for us all to come safe (ⲛⲟⲩⲉⲓ) to the shore.

XXVIII. And having been saved, then we knew that that island is called 'Melitinē.' 2 But the barbarians of that place were doing a kindness with us not a little: for having kindled a fire, they received us all, because of the rain which was happening, and because of the cold. 3 But Paulos turned himself, he found a quantity of rubbish, and he threw (ⲉⲧⲁϥ) it (plur.) to the fire, and from the heat came out a viper, it bit his hand. 4 But the barbarians having seen the wild beast hanging to his hand, they were saying to one another: 'Certainly this man is a murderer, this (one) whom, after having been saved from the sea, his

THE REVELATION OF THE HOLY IŌANNĒS.

I. The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to him, to show to his servants the things which must happen quickly: and he signified them. Having sent them through his angel to his servant Iōannēs.

2 He who witnessed to the word of God, and the witness of Jesus Christ, to[a] the things which he saw.

3 Blessed are they who read, and they who hear the words of this prophecy, and who keep the things which are written on it: for the time approached. 4 Iōannēs to the seven churches which are in [the] Asia: (the) grace which is called 'Pathmō,' because of the word of God and the witness of Jesus Christ. [10] I was being in a spirit in the day of the Kyriakē. And I heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, saying to me: [11] The things which thou wilt hear write on a book, send them to the seven churches which are [in] the Asia, That is to say Ephesos, and Smyrna, and Pergamōn, and Thyatēra, and Sardis, and Philadelphia, and Laodikia. [12] And I turned myself, I saw the voice which was speaking to me. And having turned myself, I saw seven lampstands of gold; [13] and in (the) midst of the lampstands a likeness of a son of man, being clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt upon his breasts[a] with a girdle of gold. [14] But his head and his hair being white as [a] white wool, and [a] snow; and his eyes are as a flame of fire; [15] and his feet as [a] burnished brass, being refined in a fire; and his voice as (the) voice of many

But coming from their mouths are [a] fire and [a] smoke and [a] sulphur. 18 And from these three plagues died (the) third part of the men, from the fire and the smoke and the sulphur, those which come from their mouths. 19 For (the) authority of the horses was being in their mouths and their tail: for their tail was being like to serpents having heads. And in this they were hurting the men five months. 20 And (the) remainder of the men died not in these plagues, nor did they repent from the works of their hands, that they should not worship the demons, and the idols, The gold[a] and the silver and the brass and the wood and the stone, for which it is not possible to see, nor to hear, nor to walk. 21 And they repented not from their murders, nor from their magic potions, nor from their fornications and their defilements, nor from their thefts.

(out), the great serpent, (the) ancient, he who is called the devil Satan, he who led astray the whole world; he was cast below the earth: his angels also were cast below with him.

10 And I heard a great voice up in (the) heaven, saying: 'Now happened the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ.

Because the accuser of our brethren was cast to the earth, he who accused before God in the day and the night.

11 Because they (pron.) overcame him because of (the) blood of the lamb, and because of (the) blood of their witness, for they loved not their life even unto (the) death.

12 Therefore delight yourselves, [the] heavens, and they who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and the sea: because the devil came below to you, there being a great wrath in him; knowing that only (ⲕⲉ) a little while (it is) which he hath.'

And all (the) earth wondered behind the wild beast; 4 and they worshipped the wild beast, saying: 'Who is like to this wild beast? And who (is he) for whom it is possible to war with him?'

5 And a mouth[b] was given to him to say great blasphemies, and authority was given to him to war forty-two months.

6 And he opened his mouth to blaspheme God, and to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them who dwell in (the) heaven. 7 And it was given to him to make a war with the saints, and to overcome them. And authority was given to him over all the tribes, and every tongue, and every nation: 8 and they all shall worship him, they who dwell because of the signs which were given to him, having done them before the wild beast. Saying to them who dwell upon the earth, that they should make image to the wild beast, in whom is (the) wound of (the) sword, and he lived. 15 It was given to him to give spirit to the image of the wild beast, and to kill them who will not worship the wild beast and his image. 16 And he shall cause all the small, and the great, and the rich, and the poor, and the freemen, and the servants—he shall mark them in their right hand and their forehead; 17 That no one shall be able to buy or to sell except him on whom there is mark of the wild beast put (lit. given), or his name, or (the) number of his name. 18 The wisdom (is) here. He who hath mind [a] let him reckon (the) number of the wild beast; for it is (the) number of a man: and his number is six hundred and sixty-six.

[7] And one from the four living-beings gave to the seven angels the seven vials of gold, full of the wrath of God who liveth unto age of the ages. Amēn. [8] And the temple was filled with the smoke of the glory of God, and with his power; and no one was able to come into the temple, until these plagues of the seven angels were completed.

XVI. And I heard a great voice from (the) heaven, saying to the angels: 'Go, pour your vials of (the) wrath of God below.' [2] And the first angel went, he poured his vial on the earth; and an evil sore came (ϣωπι) in the men, they who were sealed for the wild beast, and they who worshipped his image. [3] And the second angel poured his vial on the sea; and it became blood as that of a dead man; and every soul which liveth died in the sea. [4] And the third angel poured his vial on the rivers and the fountains of water; a great earthquake happened: there was not any (ⲟⲩⲟⲛ) like it since man was upon (the) earth. [19] And the great city became into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And Babylōn, the great, was remembered before God, to give to her the cup of wine of (the) wrath of the anger.

[20] And all islands fled; and the mountains found not their place. [21] And (hail) stones as of talents in weight (ϣⲓ) came from (the) heaven upon the men; and the men blasphemed God from the plague of the hail (lit. stone) which was very great.

XVII. And one from the seven angels, they who have the seven vials, came; and he spake to me, saying: 'Come, that I may show to thee (the) judgement of the great harlot who sitteth upon many waters; [2] she with whom the kings of (the) earth sinned; and they committed fornication; they who dwell upon (the) earth were drunken with (the) wine of her fornication.' [3] And he took me away to (the) desert in the (lit. a) spirit: and I saw a woman sitting upon a wild beast, scarlet, full of names of blasphemy, there being seven heads upon him, and ten horns. symedalion of wheat, and beast and sheep and horse, and body and soul of man, [14] and harvest[a] of the desire of the soul—they went from thee, and all thy fatness and thy splendour perished from thee, and thy merchants shall not find them any more; [15] Because these are they who became rich from thee: standing afar off because of (the) fear of her torment, They shall weep, they shall mourn, [16] saying: "Woe to thee, woe to thee, the great city, which is arrayed in the fine linen and the purple and the scarlet, sewn with gold and the costly stone and the pearl. [17] Because in an hour this great richness was desolated." And every pilot of the sea, and every one who saileth in the sea, are standing afar off, [18] And crying out, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying: "Who is like to this great city?" [19] And they placed earth on their head, twelve tribes of (the) sons of Israel. 13 On the east three gates, on the south of her three gates, And (the) west of the city three gates, and on the north three gates. 14 And the wall of the city having twelve foundations, and written upon them (the) name of the twelve apostles of the lamb. 15 And he who spake to me hath [a] a reed of gold, that he might measure the city and her gates and her walls. 16 And the city was a square, and as is her length thus also is her breadth. And he measured the city, he found her being twelve thousand stadia of length; and her breadth and her height are being equal.

17 And her wall was measured, it was found making a hundred forty-four thousand measures [b] of a man, that is to say, of (ϕλ) an angel. 18 And (the) circuit of the wall—

The foundation [c] was being as an iaspis. And the city was being worked (ⲛⲓⲉϩ) with pure gold as [a] pure glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city (are) built from every precious stone.

[2] He who gave covenant before upon the tongue of prophets in (lit. from) the holy book, [3] he manifested his Son, whom he begat (ⲛⲛⲁⲥ) from the body in his nurselings of David. [4] And he (pron.) was made known a son of God in the power and the holy spirit, in the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from those who are dead, [5] who gave to us the grace and the apostleship among (lit. from) all the nations, but only (ⲁ) they who heard and they received the believing (ⲡⲁϩⲧ) on his name. [6] And ye also among them (who) were called in Jesus Christ unto all men (ⲣⲱⲛⲛⲏ mistaken for ⲣⲱⲛⲛⲓ men), [7] among the beloved of God who called them holy. (The) peace and the grace to you from (ϩⲓⲧⲉⲙ) God the Father and from (ϩⲉⲙ) Jesus Christ our Lord. [8] Have not I (pron.) given thanks to my God already (ⲁⲧϩⲟⲩⲓⲧ) in Jesus Christ for you because your faith (lit. thou believedst you) was manifested in the whole world (oikomenē), and it witnessed to me of God, he whom I serve?
